All over the world, kids are discovering the fun of LEGO® Spinners!

These LEGO fans are proving that LEGO toys are tops!

Young Inventors Put a New Spin on LEGO Bricks!

Recently, three young inventors wrote the LEGO company to tell us about a great new game they had created. Using parts from their LEGO collections, Jonas, Marthias and Frederik designed a set of spinning tops. The president of the LEGO company, Kjeld Kirk Kristiansen, was so impressed by their imagination and creativity that he wrote a personal letter back to them, telling them how much he liked their LEGO Spinners!

All over the world, young fans have been using their LEGO elements to create amazing tops. James Dorman, 10, of New York, even went through the formal process of presenting his ideas for spinning tops to the LEGO Company Director of Global Inventor Relations at the Toy Fair in NYC this past February.

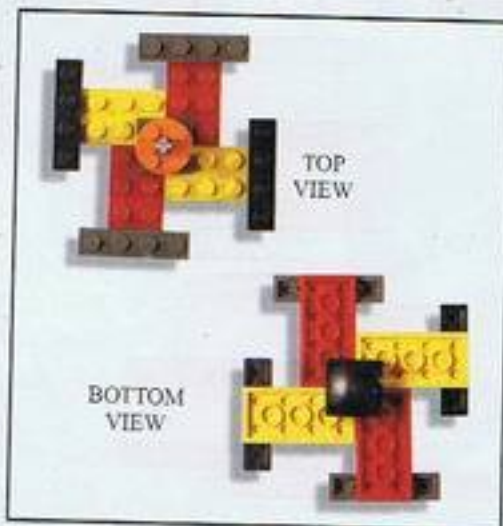

Not only had James designed and built prototypes of his tops, he had tested them with his friends and rated the various designs based on performance. He even had suggestions for possible TV commercials.

Design Your Own, One-of-a-Kind LEGO Spinner

You only need a few basic elements to create a simple LEGO Spinner. Of course, you'll want to use your favorite colors and even add more LEGO elements to design a LEGO Spinner that's all your own. That's part of the fun of LEGO Spinners - seeing just how incredible your design can be!

PARTS LIST

- 4 2x4 plates
- 4 1x4 plates
- 1 skid plate
- 1 #3 axle
- 1 2x2 round brick
- 1 2x2 brick
- 1 2x2 plate

LEGO Spinner Games

Spinner Skirmish

- 1) Make an arena out of a hoop, a tray, or anything with a flat base and raised edges.
- 2) Each contestant places their LEGO Spinner inside the arena and gets set for launch.
- 3) Count down to START.
- 4) All contestants should launch their spinners at the same time.
- 5) Last spinner standing is declared Champ!

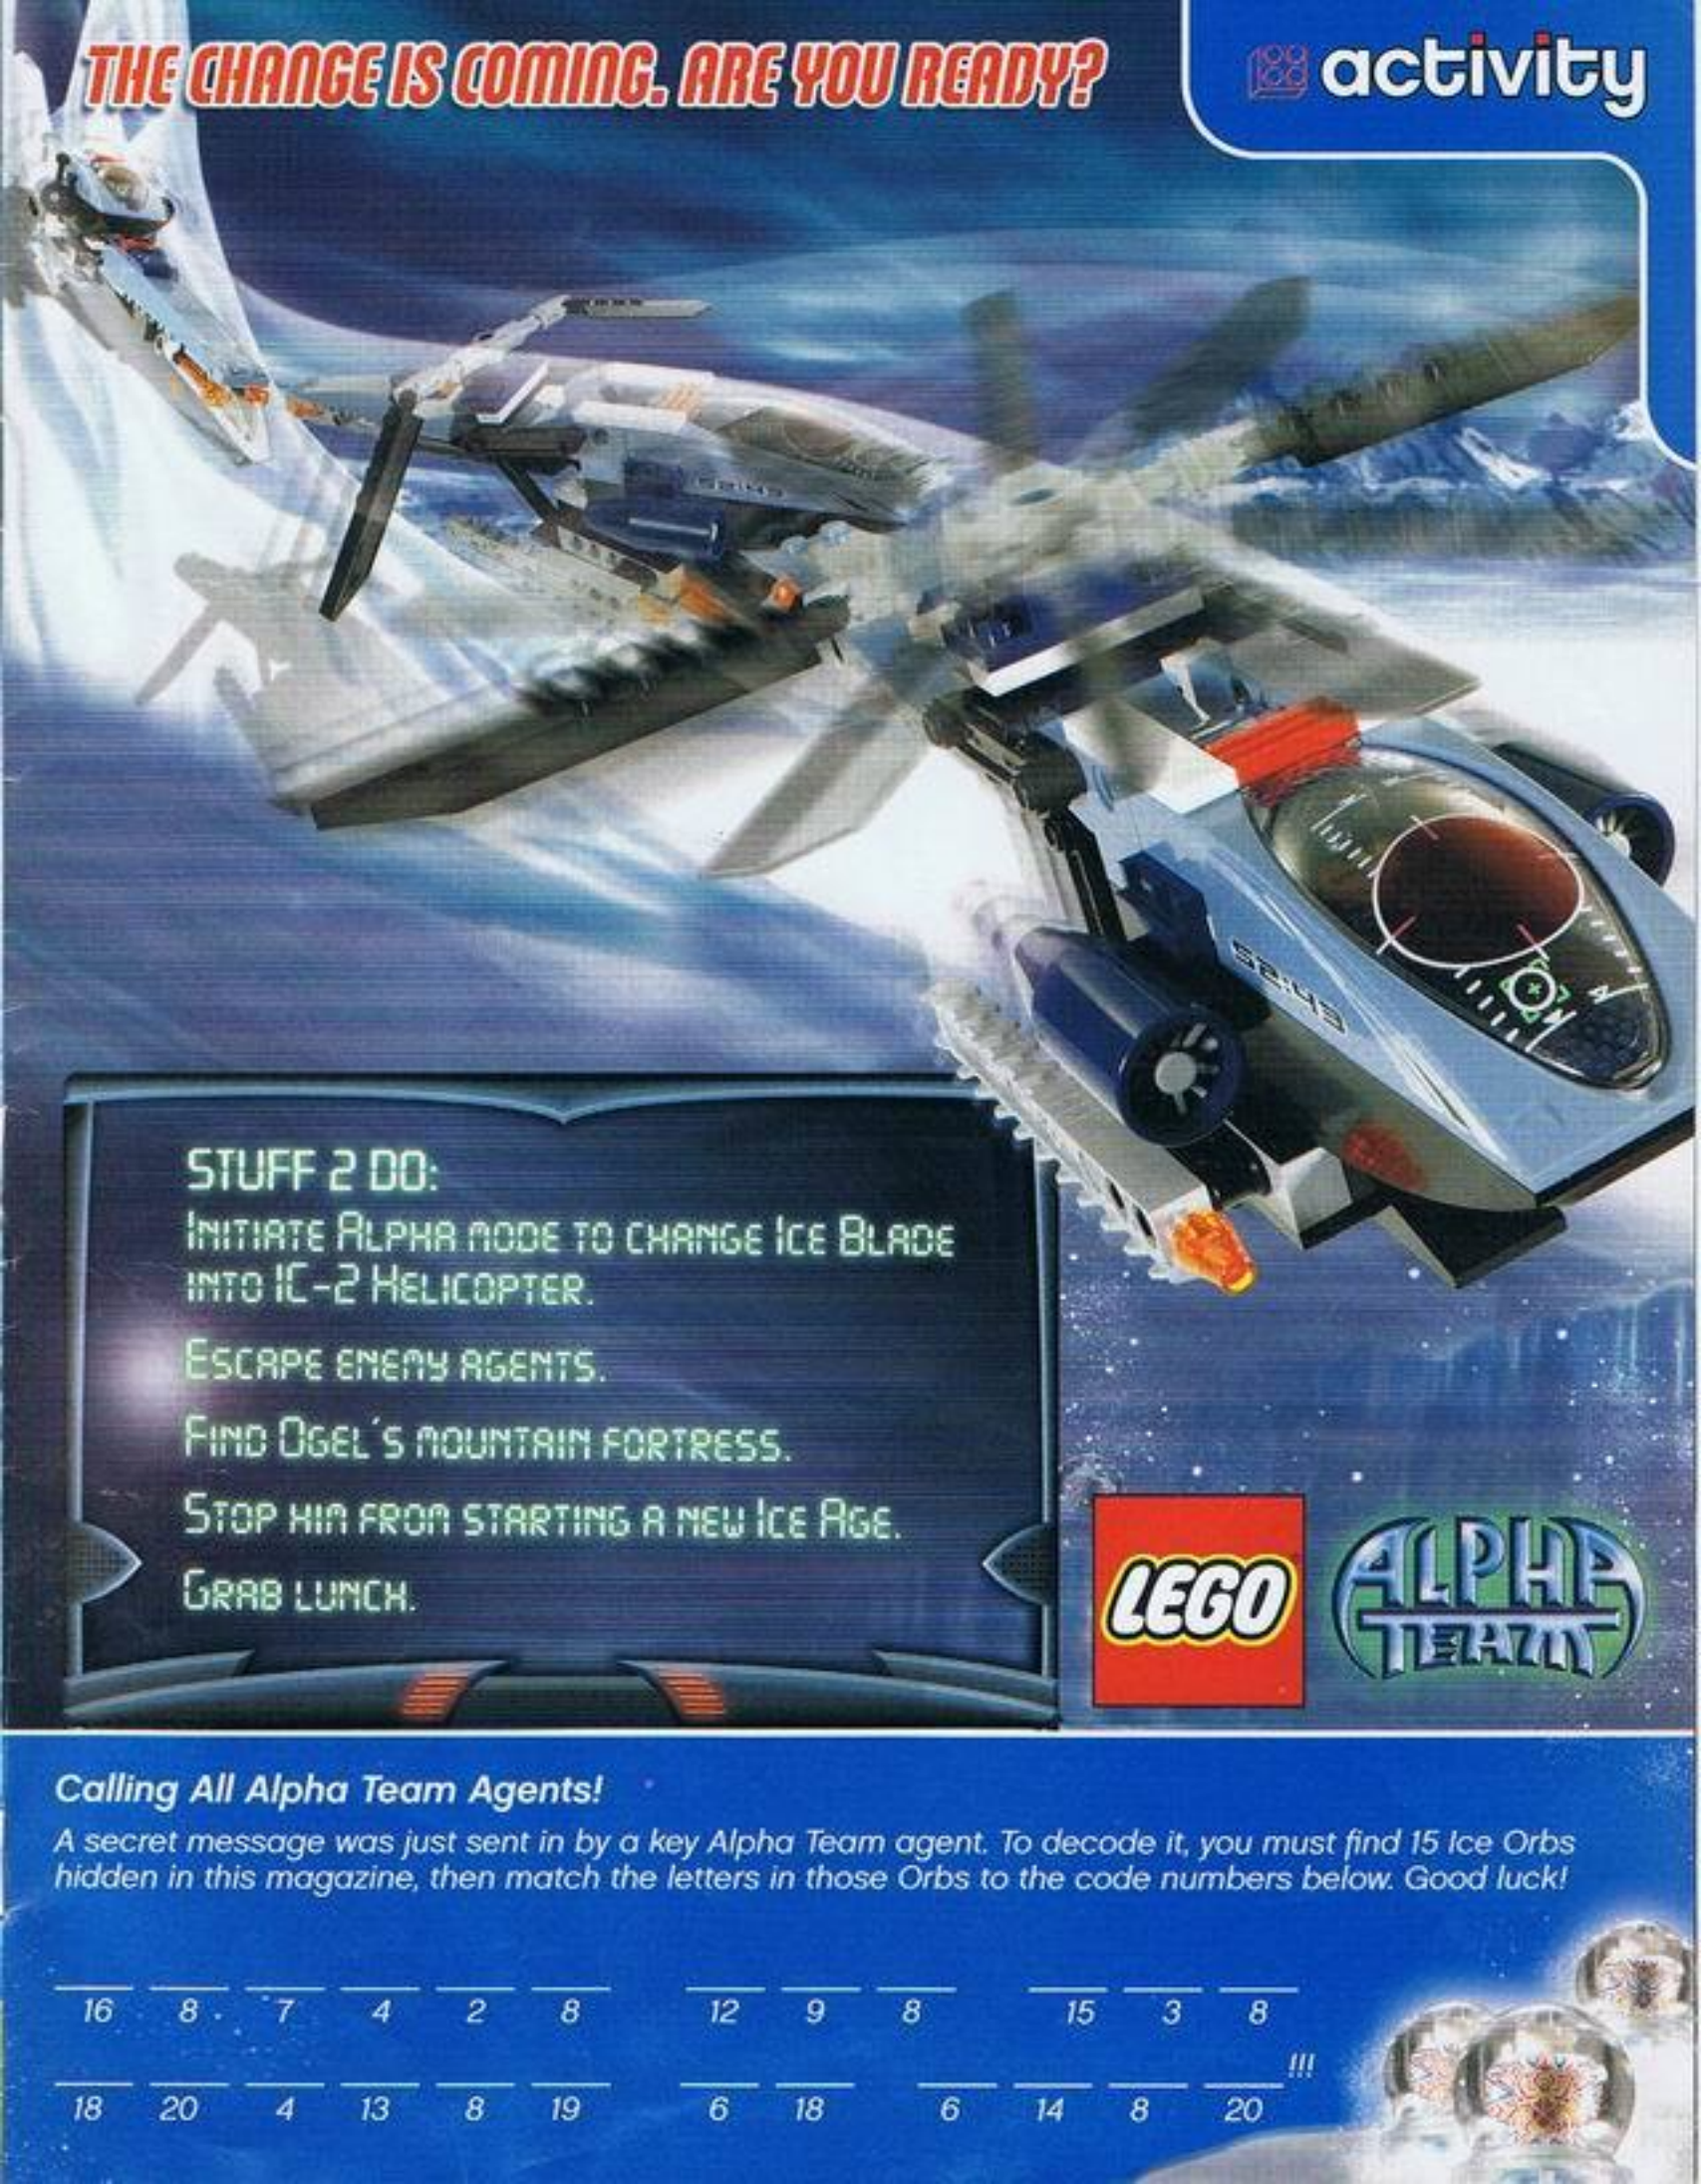

Top Time

- 1) Place your LEGO spinner on a flat surface.
- 2) Count down to START.
- 3) Launch your spinner with a twist of your fingers or a LEGO pull-back motor.
- 4) Use a stopwatch or clock with a second hand to see how long your spinner will stay up.
- 5) Try modifying your LEGO Spinner design to make it twirl even longer.
- 6) See who can set the long-spin record!

THE CHANGE IS COMING. ARE YOU READY?

7. Have to keep stopping to drain all the fun out of the room.
6. Lack of Feet robs them of the fun of stepping on all those little LEGO pieces.
5. Good at taking things apart; bad at putting them together.
4. Dumbledore will not allow them to build a life-size Harry brick sculpture in Hogwarts Castle.
3. Can't understand why there isn't a LEGO set called "Dynamic Dementor™ DeFenders."
2. Worried that their miniFigure cloaks make them look Frumpy.

LEGO 1:1 ROVER REPLICAS

This full-size LEGO® model of the Mars Rover took a team of LEGO Master-builders more than 650 hours to build. It tips the scales at 290 pounds (130 kg) and contains more than 90,000 LEGO bricks! All of the instruments, components and structures were reproduced to scale with the real-life rover.

THE REAL ROVERS

During the exploration phase of their mission, Spirit and Opportunity transmitted a wealth of valuable geologic data back to Earth – information that will help ensure the success of future space missions. Each real Rover measures 4.9 Feet tall, 7.5 Feet wide and 5.2 Feet long and weighs in at 410 pounds (185 kilograms).

This LEGO Mars Exploration Rover (7471) is a highly detailed miniature replica of NASA Rovers Spirit and Opportunity. It's made up of 858 elements and features flip-up solar panels, moveable radio dish and controllable steering. You can use it to reenact the Mars Rover missions of 2004, or to explore that strange, uncharted landscape beneath your bed.

BiFF: They contain the names of nearly 4 million earthlings!
Sandy: And since they're made of silica glass, they should last for more than 500 years here on the Marblan surface!
BiFF: That's all for now. I'm off to go surfing at Gusev Crater!
Sandy: ... Surfing? BiFF, have you found water on Mars?
BiFF: SAND-surfing, Sandy! I just invented it! It's going to be all the rage back on Earth!
Sandy: I think all that sand must have clogged your circuits, BiFF.

Welcome to the Kingdom of Morcia, a land of magic and adventure!

Greetings! I am Danju, Knight of Morcia. We Knights have long protected our peaceful kingdom and displayed our skills in the tournament arena, but now the king has vanished and the evil Vladek has stolen the throne. If we cannot stop him in time, Vladek and his Shadow Knights will rule all of Morcia!

It's up to four brave Knights to find the Heart of the Magical Shield of Ages and save the Kingdom!

A Jayko

Courageous to the core, our youngest hero's lightning reflexes allow him to strike as swiftly as a bid of prey.

B Danju

A ferocious dedication to the Code of Honor inspires other knights to follow this wise and devoted veteran.

C Santis

Incredible brute strength sets this gentle giant apart. Mighty Santis can "bear up" under the heaviest of burdens.

D Rascus

While he enjoys practical jokes, this nimble knight would never let his "monkeyshines" put his friends in danger.

E

Together, they must stop the evil Vladek from taking over the kingdom!

Vladek

Once a respected tournament champion, this lethal villain now uses sorcery to control the throne of Morcia.

How well do you know your Knights? See if you can match each Knight's letter with his shield emblem.

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____ 5. _____

THESE KNIGHTS ARE SORT OF THE ALPHA TEAM OF THE MIDDLE AGES!

I LIKE VLADEK, MYSELF.
